A ROUND OF TALK.

Say Something Good.
(From the Baltimore American.)
Pick out the folks you like the best and watch them for awhile. They never waste a kindly word, they never waste a smile. They criticize their fellow-men at every chance they get. They never found a human just to suit their fancy yet.
From them I guess you'd learn some things if they were pointed out. Some things that every one of us should know a lot about. When some one "knocks" a brother, pass around the loving-cup. Say something good about him if you have to make it up.
It's safe to say that every man God made holds true to his fellows if he could. That he would find exhibit in his fellows if he could. The kind of deeds in many a soul are alternating there. Awaiting the encouragement of other souls that are there.
To show the best that's in them is a universal move. Would start the whole world running in a hopeful, helpful groove. Say something sweet to paralyze the "knocker" on the spot. Speak kindly of his victim if you know the man or not.

ORGANIZATION—There is a quiet, effective movement among the farmers of what is the White Burles tobacco district, which promises to result in an organization which will ultimately result in the controlling of the selling price of their tobacco to a more or less extent. That such an organization can be and is being brought about, has been already clearly demonstrated in other farming communities. A well known Washington county tobacco grower in speaking of the tobacco market the other day told of how he took his crop of White Burles to Louisville, and saw it sold as a less price than a lot of tobacco of the dark variety, which as every one knows, usually sells at a much lower figure than Burles. Our tobacco growing friend is seeking an expansion of the state of affairs, was informed that the cause was due to the fact that there was an organization, back of the dark tobacco interest, and that organization had something to say about the selling price. The principle of the organization is quite simple and involves no unwieldy stock company, nor the handling of stock subscriptions, nor the interesting of east or capitalistic farmers are not called upon to put up any money. They are simply invited to join a little local society made up of farmers in certain neighborhood. When as many as three of these societies are formed in a county, a county organization may be formed, which will become a member of the national organization, which is known as the American Society of Equitists. This organization has been operating successfully for years in the western and southern states, where it is a factor in controlling the price of cotton and wheat. The following from the Hopkinsville Kentucky note is something of the effect on the dark tobacco market:
"Four hundred heads of tobacco were brought in this city this week by rail-man J. P. Jarrett, of the Planters' Association, and which brought good prices, some of the weed going as high as $12. There is a new demand for all grades, and there is no trouble in selling tobacco in good order. Although the quality of tobacco raised by Christians this year is not as good as that of the year before, the association is getting more money for it, and a lively good demand for all grades from now on is expected. The association's growth and extended influence is shown by the fact that the membership, which was 7,000 last year, is now more than 12,000. Outside of Clarksville, the affairs of the association are being harmoniously conducted everywhere, and many new members are being enrolled every month. The receipts of the association here are now more than 2,000 heads."

HOME COMING.

Former Washington County Residents Indicate Their Intention of Attending The Big Event.

The plans for Home Coming Week in Louisville, June 13-17, are practically complete, and any one of all familiar with them will agree that they point to the largest gathering in the history of the south. The very lowest estimate, based upon acceptance cards and letters on file at the headquarters of the Louisville Commercial Club, put in at an attendance of over 55,000 ex-Kentuckians. Only a small portion of this number indicated on their acceptance cards the county of their birth. It will be found a list of former residents of this county who have accepted the Home Coming invitation. This list by no means represents the attendance of those who went from the county. Practically every one accepting the invitation has stated that he or she will be accompanied by from two to five others.

The Home Coming Association at Louisville informs us that Washington county will, according to its estimates, be represented by 510 former citizens of this county during the big June event. As the railroads have made a rate of one fare for the round trip from Louisville to all points in Kentucky, tickets going on sale June 10th, it is expected that all former citizens of our county who visit Louisville, will come to their old homes as soon as they have partaken fully of Louisville's hospitality.

Brv Act.
Through the presence of mind and bravery of Miss Eva Gray, a thirteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Gray, who conduct the boarding house on the corner of Market and Water streets, a tragedy was averted last night. Just as the Gray family was about to go to bed, a fire broke out in the Gray family's parlor. The fire was the paragon of the Presbyterian church where Rev. and Mrs. T. M. McConnell, who have three bright and well reared children. One of them, Patsy, aged three years, while playing with her sister yesterday at the hour named above, was on the railroad track as a freight train girth was a mo upon her. The child, one second on the impending train, was too late to be saved. She was seen by her mother, who saw the child's peril and rushed out to her. She was rescued, but the child's body was found in a pile of wreckage. The child was rushed off to the hospital, but she died before she reached it. The tragedy was averted, but the child's death was a great loss to the family.

Fell 180 Feet.
One of the luckiest men we have ever heard of is Frank Ashcraft, who toppled over the Kentucky river cliff on the road leading to Brook in Bridge, and who landed at the bottom 180 feet below, and yet lives to tell the story. The mishap occurred last Thursday. His brothers missed him and wondered as to his whereabouts, and Friday morning instituted a search for him. Frank's hat was found on the pike at the edge of the cliff, and an examination showed that the dirt and rock at the edge of the precipice had been disturbed. Believing that the man had fallen into the chasm, the searchers, by a roundabout way, descended to the bottom and found the object of their search lying unconscious in the ravine below. Though terribly bruised and mangled, no bones were broken. He was taken home and medical aid was summoned, and he is now doing well and it is said he will recover. That he was not killed outright seems miraculous, and more so from the fact that he lay from Thursday morning until Friday afternoon at the bottom of the cliff without attention. Mr. Ashcraft, it is said, admits that he was intoxicated, and says he has no recollection of how he got over the fence that protects travelers from falling. In fact, he can tell nothing about it. He had $50 in his pockets, and in some way, probably as he was going down, this came out of his trousers and was scattered about in the underbrush. The point where he went over is almost perpendicular, but small ledges of rock and dirt project out every fifteen or twenty feet, and it is thought that Ashcraft tumbled from one of another of these, when, to a great extent, broke his fall. Had not his hat remained on the pike his plight would not have become known and he would have soon died and his fate would probably have forever remained a mystery.

In 1889 he raised 10 acres, which required 242 days. He weighed out 9,350 pounds. He received 10 cents per pound, and his one half amounted to $467.50. In 1892 he raised 11 acres which required 470 days labor. The 11 acres produced 10,005 pounds, which he sold at 10 cents, his one half amounting to $500.25. He has to keep a team and necessary farming implements throughout the year, and figures that if he was allowed ordinary wages for himself and team it would consume about all he got out of the crops, and he received fair prices for those crops.

Barkhead and family were the guests of Mr. Rena Thompson and family Sunday.

as a candidate for the office of Clerk of the Washington Circuit Court. Subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Gov. Beckham has thrown a bomb, which is causing some of the inhabitants of Louisville to throw several kinds of fits, by instructing Mayor Barth to enforce the Sunday law as to the closing of saloons and theaters and other such places which have been running wide open on the Sabbath. And Mayor Barth, much to the consternation of the gang to whom he owes his election, has announced his determination to put the lid on tight and to hold it on if possible. This move on the part of Gov. Beckham and Mayor Barth is most commendable. The laws should be strictly enforced. Unfortunately however there is a suspicion among a large element that there is a nigger in the woodpile of this sudden fit of reform which has seized our Governor and the Mayor of the city of Louisville.

The Third Congressional district convention held at Green ville, nominated the Hon James M. Richardson for a second term in Congress, endorsed Judge Henry B. Hines for State Auditor and gave strong endorsement to the present administration.

Is no more dangerous than to neglect kidney disorders. Foley's Kidney Cure corrects irregularities and has cured many severe cases after other treatment has failed. It builds up the worn out tissues and restores health and vigor. "I was troubled with kidney complaint for about two years," writes A. H. Davis, of Mt. Sterling, Iowa, "but two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure effected a permanent cure." Sold at the Red Cross Drug Store.

The Lid On

The "lid is on" in Danville and on tight at that. The other day a deaf palmer was on his way to town to get some turpentine. He was stopped by a minion of the law who objected to this style of bottle, even though empty, carried by him. Our friend protested in moving pantomime his devotion to temperance principles, declaring himself a passenger on the water wagon, and that his choice of a bottle was owing to the fact that this pattern was the handiest available at the place where he was working. But the local Sherlock Holmes after a whiff at the mouth of the bottle sent Joseph back where he came from, presumably to exchange the empty "Old Joe" for a bottle with a red liver label and seal.—Danville Advocate.

Rev. Father Hargerty has been called from St. Rose to take charge of St. Dominick Church in Washington. He is one among the best educated men in the land, a fine speaker and loved by every one, and since he has gone the community misses him greatly, as he went about with great deal and had a smile and a kind word for each one. Our best wishes attend him wherever he may be called.

Mrs. Pius Nalley and Miss Maggie Hamilton were the guests of Mrs. Spaulding near Fredericktown last Sunday.

Mr. Ben O'Daniel and Miss Annie Mary O'Daniel left away to Lebanon and were quietly married by Judge Barton and returned to his home on Shepherd's Run to spend their honeymoon. We are credibly informed that the groom has five children older than his wife, and three younger, all away from home. Sil Williamson having married his youngest daughter a few weeks ago.

A pleasant time is reported at the social at Mr. Thomas Medley's last Thursday night. As Mrs. Horace Spaulding and another lady were on their way to the Bear Wallow store they met an engine. Their horse became unmanageable and upset the buggy, hurting Mrs. Spaulding considerably. If something is not done to keep these monsters off the turnpikes the ladies will not be safe to drive alone for they (the engines) are running wheezing and there are but few horses that will not become frightened.

Mrs. Robert O'Keefe had the bad luck to lose all her young turkeys by an old hog. There were 52 and she ate all but three and as she passed on grunting she seemed to say she would have eaten the others but it would have seemed foolish.

The locusts have made their appearance in abundance and they are a perfect nuisance to everyone. Tradition says they came at made their appearance to Pharaoh and have come regularly every seventeen years since. They have the letter "M" on their wings which is said to be a sign of plenty of money for the next 17 years. We hope that there is something in the saying but somehow just cant believe it.

A very valuable work mule belonging to Sals Coulter was found Thursday morning in rather a dangerous condition. The mule appeared to be badly choked. Our veterinary Dr. Cammack, has consulted and found that a piece of a cob had passed into his trachea and after much difficulty succeeded in removing it. The mule at once was ready for service.

A large crowd of our people from here attended the temperance meeting at Willoughbys Saturday evening and all are loud in praise of the speeches made by Rev. Williams and Judge Thurman. A big rally will be held at the church here Sunday evening. Arrangements are being made to have Revs. Williams and Waldon and Judge Thurman as the orators of the day. It is safe to say that local opinion will make a clean sweep of this vicinity.

There are looking rather blue to the farmers about corn. The cutworms are playing havoc with the corn, the tobacco plants are beginning to die in the beds for the want of rain. Many are hauling water and watering the beds in order to keep the plants from dying. Young grass and small grain are suffering greatly and cats are said to be ruined by the continued dry spell. At this time last year most all the tobacco here was put out but there is such a scarcity of plants that the fall crop will hardly be put out this time for already some have planted their ground in corn.

bro, are visiting Mrs. James L. Moran.

Thomas A. Grundy, accompanied by Miss Brown attended the temperance meeting in town Sunday afternoon.

Miss Mattie Brown, of Georgia, is the guest of Miss Lydia Grundy at Cedar Grove.

Messrs Wabben Simms and Prof. Thompson, of your town, accompanied by Misses Mahli and Nannie Thompson, of Pleasant Grove, were in our midst Sunday en route to Maud.

Misses Ola and Imogene Goatley are visiting in the Maud vicinity this week.

Quite a delegation from this place attended the Children's Day exercises at Maud Christian church Sunday evening, and all report an enjoyable time. The children deserve great credit for their great work in making such a striking success.

Several from this place attended the commencement exercises at Bardstown Monday night.

Almost every one interested in the temperance of our county attended the lecture at the opera house Sunday afternoon. Col. Collins seems to have deeply impressed most of his hearers, and it is the general belief that his talk has influenced the majority to vote for a "dry county."

Here's to the good luck and success of every temperance man of this and adjoining vicinities.

Owing to the spring drought many prospective tobacco raisers are now without plants and are planting the tobacco land in corn. This may seem hard for the time being, yet, it is probably for the best for many, as the small yield of tobacco will command higher prices, which will exceed the deficiency in pounds.

There has been a minute form of burglary carried on in a portion of our vicinity during a few weeks past. However, no serious losses have been discovered.

Cakes, pies, boiled meats and canned fruits seem to be the objects of the search. In one case a lady had a new hat torn to pieces, outside of which the above named articles were the only things destroyed, this being done when the family was away from home.

Miss Ola Goatley, of this place, is the possessor of a small alligator received recently from a friend in Pensacola, Fla. Although a rare specimen of the American crocodile, it is a desirable pet and has adjusted itself to the habits of the new home, however it retains some habits peculiar to its native home that are laughable.

The cicada, or locust, as they are more familiarly known, have made their appearance again after a seventeen years' absence, and it takes a close observer to realize that there are multitudes of the dreaded plague, and their familiar cry, "Pharaoh," can be heard incessantly throughout the day, especially in shaded places.

According to an old theory, blackberries are to be shunned this season, as the locusts deposit their eggs on the berries, and the larvae which follows causes death after severe suffering.

Mt. Zion Echoes.

We are sorry this will be our last letter for the C. N. C. for several weeks, as school is now out and we separate to enjoy our vacation, and our means of gathering news will not be so good, however if we should collect enough news in the meantime we will gladly send it in. Still we won't be missed much.

At the close of a three months school last Saturday Miss Nora Bonté gave us quite a treat in the way of a picnic. It was held in a beautiful shady spot on the Clinch river about two miles from our school. A great many were present. Visitors, parents and children. Signs were sung, recitations given, games indulged in and a bountiful dinner was fortunate.
